

2016 Presidential election

When around 8 a.m.

[1:00AM New York time]

the most important result of our work arrived, we uncorked a tiny bottle of champagne ... took one gulp each and looked into each other's eyes ...

We uttered almost in unison:

"We made America great."

From an email the US government obtained from an employee of Russia's Internet Research Agency (IRA), which was responsible for manipulating the election in favor of Trump via posting to social media
