

Southern border wall

Mr Trump never intended the wall as anything more than a slogan. The manufactured crisis on the US border stopped the moment Mr Trump was elected in November 2016. It only resumed in the weeks leading up to the 2018 midterm elections.

Border crises are a way of whipping up fear and outrage. They only manifest themselves when Democrats are in office.

Edward Luce,
Financial Times, January 10, 2019